Pastor’s Message
Rev. Anne H.K. Apple

Yesterday in worship, we concluded with the hymn, Blest be the Tie That Binds. Elizabeth’s leadership in that moment, led us to sing the last stanza acapella. For me, it was a gift of grace, to hear and to hold the congregation in song. It was also a relief to share in person some of the details with the congregation after the pastoral letter was sent last week for a vision about how we move forward with an intentional process of healing.

In 1942 theologian Paul Tillich spoke to the 50th Church Congress of the Protestant Episcopal Church. He responded to the disintegration he was seeing in Western Europe and referred to what he believed were the contributing forces. In “Storms of our Times,” Tillich names four forces: a cloud of indefinite anxiety, uncertainty, loneliness, and a rise of meaninglessness. Today, historian Martin Marty calls those same forces the impact behind what we are experiencing as “cultural disintegration.”

One thing we know with certainty in the church is that in life and in death, we belong to God and that with the Holy Spirit’s work, Jesus meets us where we are. Throughout the gospel lessons in Lent, we witness different encounters with Christ. Nicodemus comes by night and a Samaritan woman meets Jesus at the well, and he asks her for a drink; a blind man follows Jesus’ command to “go wash” and this week we will see Jesus weep and hear his command to unbind Lazarus. The gospel never gets old and I have found it to be a profound experience to study scripture with congregants on Wednesdays with Lectio Divina. The process, and listening with one another is meaning making and connective work. And, speaking of meaning making and connective work, the remainder of this article is a report from the March 2023 Session Meeting. The Session you have elected is serving faithfully.

March Session Meeting Update

Sue Scribner met with the Session, described her calling to become a member and disciple at First Presbyterian Church, Tallahassee. Sue shared a song with the Session which describes the rhythms of God’s grace, “Come to Me” by Sandra McCracken. Sue will join Easter Sunday by Reaffirmation of Faith.

Treasurer, David Strange, moved, and the Session adopted,

- A stub budget be approved for 30 days until a refined budget could come before the Session at the April meeting.
- That a letter of agreement be issued to Nichols, Cauley & Associates to perform a review of financials for $15,000.
Financial Administrator, Jim Davis, responded to questions regarding contributions which were given to the Michael Corzine Music Fund. Those funds did not appear on the Special Funds Report. In the future, the amount will be noted on the report. The Worship and Music Ministry Team will write a newsletter article reminding congregants that contributions can still be made to this fund.

Worship and Music Ministry Team had no report.

Spiritual Formation Ministry Team reported the joy of welcoming new teachers in the Inquirer’s Class and that they were meeting later this week.

Care and Outreach Ministry Team will be coordinating a simple supper on Good Friday before worship; and providing for a reception for Jim Davis on April 30, 2023.

Compassion and Social Justice Ministry Team reported on the receipt of a $5,000 grant from Florida Presbytery for the ministry of Guns to Gardens. They also have completed some work with Home Front, which is for formerly unhoused disabled veterans. The date has not been secured yet, but look for an ice-cream social hosted by First Presbyterian with Home Front in May.

Personnel Ministry Team reported on the application for a Davidson College Fellowship for this Summer; that Jim Davis will formally retire and be recognized on Sunday, April 30th and that a search has begun for a part time financial administrator; and that technology assistant, Owen Nichols will graduate from FSU in May.

Property Ministry Team brought a motion for the approval up to $50,000 for bathroom renovations.

A time for reflection on the meeting of the congregation was entertained. Pastor Apple explained that Presbyterian polity did not allow for a Congregational Meeting for an informational report from the interim therefore the report from the interim became a part of worship in response to the Word proclaimed. And that a clear feedback opportunity was provided at Restoration@OldFirstChurch.org.

To close the meeting, Pastor Apple invited elder Lauren Wellford Deming from First Presbyterian Church in Portland, Oregon, to testify at the close of the meeting. On a schedule, moving forward from this meeting, third year elders will be asked to give their testimony to end each Session meeting.

God’s peace,
God’s presence.
Anne
Holy Week is a time to reflect on the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Remembering Jesus' actions, reflecting on his messages and recommitting to living as his disciples in the world today.

We hope this schedule helps you plan to observe these important days, both on your own and with others. May you have a blessed Holy Week and Easter.

Simple Supper and An Exercise in Letting Go
Good Friday 5:00 p.m. Westminster Room

Do you ever find yourself pondering, fretting or even agonizing about the distant or recent past over words exchanged, things done to you or by you or left undone? Things that cannot be changed can weigh us down and steal our joy; but, how do we let them go? One ritual approach to this involves writing the grievance down and then burning the paper upon which it is written.

At our supper on Good Friday you will be asked to write a brief statement that begins, This is what I need to let go, and let Christ take to the cross, that I might be born anew.

These writings will be nailed to the cross, and then at Saturday’s Easter Vigil service – they will be put into the bonfire in the Garth.

For those unable to participate in Friday’s Supper, if you get your statement to the church office by Thursday, April 6th it will be included. You do not need to identify yourself on the statement.
This Sunday March 26th Presbyterian Women Spring Mission Workshop
Bring a Brown Bag Lunch and a Sun Hat
Dessert and Beverage will be provided

Join us immediately after Worship in the Courtyard (weather permitting) and Westminster Room for lunch, fellowship, mission work, and our guest speaker, Rev. Anne H.K. Apple. If you can't attend in person, Zoom coverage will begin after lunch around 1 P.M. and you can watch and hear Rev. Apple on Zoom. The Zoom link is available through PW Circles and in this coming Saturday's Church announcements email.

Our hard-working Together-In-Service members have lots of sewing and non-sewing projects for you to help with, and our local UF Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences (IFAS) Extension Office has contributed many, many different kinds of seeds for us to take home to plant to encourage a healthy environment. And while you are there, be sure to send a card to someone who would appreciate being remembered!

Thank you to those who are already dropping off in the Calvin Room(206) donated items for our workshop projects! Among the items still gratefully accepted:

- pre-wrapped packages of peanut butter crackers
- breakfast / energy / or fruit bars
- new toothbrushes and small toothpastes
- small deodorants
- dental floss
- solid color washcloths (no white, please)
- disposable pads for school-age girls
- cotton briefs for women (S, M, or L) and girls (10, 12, 14, 16) (no white, please)

It is always a pleasure to join together at this Workshop. Please plan to join us this Sunday and help turn our energy into results for others. For questions, please call Jan Bush.
The Compassion and Social Justice Ministry Team has received a grant from the Presbytery of Florida to support our Guns2Gardens ministry. Guns2Gardens is a national grassroots effort supported by the Presbyterian Peace Fellowship which works to reduce gun violence by reducing the number of guns in homes and communities. Unwanted firearms are surrendered, dismantled, and turned into garden tools. We are working with four other Presbyterian churches and two Catholic churches in Tallahassee to hold a community event where firearms will be dismantled on June 10. The congregation blessed the saw to be used in the dismantling effort in November 2022. If you are interested in participating in planning and/or volunteering at the event, please contact Carol Weissert at cweissert@fsu.edu.

God Squad

Friday, March 24th @ Noon
First Baptist Church of Tallahassee

Political Football, Inc.

These days, politicians aren’t the only ones who have to state their opinion on every single political disagreement du jour. It seems like practically every religious, nonprofit and for-profit company has to do the same, with everyone from mom-and-pop operations to Fortune 500 companies forced to run the gauntlet through our cold civil war. Are you “us” or are you “them”? We’ll talk about just how advisable this situation is and if there might be a better way.

Joining us will be Father Tim Haleda of St. Thomas More Co-Cathedral, Pastor Joe Davis, Jr. of Truth Gatherers Community Church, Stefanie Posner of Temple Israel, and Dr. Gary Shultz of First Baptist Church of Tallahassee.

Register below for free or to purchase a delicious lunch!

Holy scripture teaches us that God created humankind in god’s own image. Christ calls us to love God, with all our mind, soul, and heart, and our neighbor as ourselves. With this comes the sacred responsibility to treat each human being with the love and respect due to a child of God.

We acknowledge the long history of systemic racism that, through violence, laws, policies, and their implementation, was intended to exclude persons who are not Caucasian from benefits and opportunities - from the first European settlers who considered themselves entitled to land and violently displaced indigenous people from their homes, to the equally long history of slavery which built the wealth of this country, to Jim Crow laws to current instances of police brutality and the overwhelming mass incarceration of people of color.

We declare ourselves utterly opposed to all forms of systemic racism. We are committed to standing with those who find themselves on the receiving end of any form of racism. We will seek out opportunities to oppose all forms of systematic racism and to ensure that black lives matter, as do those of indigenous, Asian, and Latinx people and persons of all colors or countries of origin. Our faith tells us that we can do no less, if we truly affirm that all human beings are made in god’s image.

We dream of a day in which all persons are treated as bearers of that image.
